The Dental Registry and DNA Repository celebrated its 8th anniversary on September 11, 2014. The DRDR is a database of clinical information matched with a biological sample. All individuals seeking treatment at the School of Dental Medicine are invited to participate. Four awards were given this year to past student researchers with outstanding performance. These students are:

Alexander Frisbie (photographed)

Dental Student, University of Pittsburgh

Jeremy Hwang

Dental Student, Temple University

Adam Perl

Dental Hygienist, Pittsburgh, PA

Maria Ferraro

Practicing Dentist, Bethlehem, PA
